There's a smarter way forward to enable effective hybrid learning.

The rapid shift to remote learning is creating a management and deployment crisis for education IT staff. Safety and security, student engagement, and even the digital divide are all issues that must be addressed by teachers on a daily basis. The right technology solutions are key to solving for the intense challenges of today's hybrid classroom. In partnership with Intel® Skills for Innovation, Lenovo has created the Smarter Way Forward campaign to provide educators with insights and resources to build effective tech solutions for learning and teaching success.
